

BIRDS REPORTED PLENTIFUL

New Game Law Allows Only Twelve Quail Killed in a Day

There come glowing reports from every section as to the quail crop. In every neighborhood the birds are reported to be more plentiful than for years past and the hunters are looking forward to extra good shooting. But they will find the land owners more disposed to keep indiscriminate hunters off their ground and permission had better be secured before entering any field.

Another thing this year which will have a direct influence on the quail shooting is the new law which limits each hunter's kill to twelve birds per day. In times past it has often been nothing short of wanton slaughter; when no limit was set hunters were allowed to kill all the birds they could. A genuine sportsman will religiously adhere to this law, for it was passed to safeguard the quail and prevent them from being cleaned out entirely, and for those who will not observe the bag limit it is proposed to have wide awake game wardens who will see that they are prosecuted if they go above the limit. Game wardens have the power to stop any hunter at any time and make him show what he has in his bag.

BREMEN RE-PORTED CAPTURED

The German merchant submarine Bremen is reported captured by the English with a cargo of dyestuffs and $250,000,000 worth of diamonds on board. The ship is now tied up at Falmouth harbor, according to a story told by Dr. R. Tait McKinzie, director of the department of physical education in the University of Pennsylvania, who has lately returned to Philadelphia after sixteen months in army training at Camp Aldershot, outside of London.

Some of the diamonds are famous precious stones belonging to Germany.

Needle Craft

Mrs. Harriet Bowring entertained the Needle Craft Thursday evening at her home on West Main. At the members were present and the hostess served a most delightful salad course after work hours were over. Miss Merle King was the guest of the club.

"NIGHT RIDER" TRIALS MONDAY

The trials of about eighty-five alleged "night riders" are set for Monday in circuit court at Madisonville. Indictments were returned against a large number of these at the May term of court, while others have been under indictment for sometime. Six were sentenced to the penitentiary last May.

Twenty-five indictments have been returned by the grand jury. Most of these were against "bootleggers."

No indictment has been returned against Mack Logan, who shot and killed Marshal K. H. Keuch, at Dawson last July, but the grand jury, it is understood, is investigating this killing.

Elect Officers

At a call meeting of the Philatelic Class Tuesday evening at the home of Ralph Dndley officers of the class were elected as follows: Mrs. R. E. Dudley, teacher; Miss Margaret Mitchell, president; Miss Lucy Fawcett, first vice president; Miss Baidie Jennings, second vice president; Miss Margaret Kemp, treasurer, and Miss Cordie Jennings, secretary.

On motion it was unanimously carried that the first Tuesday in each month be designated for the purpose of holding social meetings at the homes of various members. The first meeting of this kind will be held Thursday, Oct. 3, at the home of Miss Lucy Fawcett, on East Main. All members are urged to be present.

Concreting on West Main About Done

The residents of West Main street have about completed the work of putting in walks in front of their property. When this work is finished Main street on both sides of the railroad will be practically all concrete walks and it certainly improves the appearance of the city. Contractors Harry Long and Brother and George Miller had charge of the work.

SUPPER AT LAKESIDE PARK

The pupils of the sixth and seventh grades gave a bacon fry and picnic supper to their teachers, Misses Julia Fawcett and Mayme Stanley, at Lakeside park Tuesday night. After supper they sat around the camp fire and played games, told tales and otherwise enjoyed themselves.

THOSE THAT HAVE-GET BY A.T. WESTON

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU DEATHLY SICK AT MORTONS

Stop Using Dangerous Drug Before it Salivates You! —It's Horrible!

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated, can't believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels. Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a 50c bottle of Dison's Liver Tonic and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without cramping or making you sick, I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless vegetable Dison's Liver Tonic tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterwards.

SURRENDER TO FORCE WOULD TEND TO DISASTER.

"That kind of virus in our life—surrender to force—would bring us no end of disaster. If we let capitalists or workmen, any interest, learn that the way to get what is wanted is by applying pressure and if we continue in that course for a few years, democracy will be a failure, and we might as well give up our force of government." — Mr. Hughes in His Speech at Portland, Maine.

Dixie Bee Line Inspection Postponed

The inspection of the Dixie Bee Line has been postponed until after the November election on account of Mayor Bessie and other members of the committee being unable to attend on account of the election campaign. J. O. Keller, secretary of the association, in a letter to Judge Will T. Mills states that the probable date of inspection will be about the middle of November.

WILL MEET AT MORTONS

The Little Bethel Association of Baptist churches will meet in annual session at Morton's Gap on Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 4 and 5. The association is composed of some 36 churches with a membership of about 4,000, the majority of these churches being in Hopkins county. The Morton's Gap church will take pleasure in providing entertainment for all who attend the association, both as members and visitors. The first session will be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Quality Versus Quantity

Many housewives make a vital mistake in choosing some of their foodstuffs on the basis of quantity.

It has been proven time and again that the cheapest is always the most expensive while the highest priced is not always the best.

There's a happy medium in everything. When you select foods, be careful. Don't choose any particular brand of, say Baking Powder for example, just because you get a big can for a small price.

The risk you take in buying your entire baking and losing the cost of the materials involved is not anywhere equal to the small amount saved on the price of the Baking Powder.

Then again, because the price is high, don't think the quality is the best. Some women do, and they are losing money.

Look for the happy medium. You'll find it. Choose a brand that costs a moderate price and you'll find it more economical to buy and more economical to use.

The best Baking Powder in the world can be made so as to sell for 25c per lb.

Christian Women's Board of Missions

The Christian Women's Board of Missions will meet next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The subject of the day is "The Christian Service of the Home." The first meeting of the new mission year was a large attendance and was a success. M. O. Vanoy will be leader.

Finnegan's Philosophy BALAAM

Well do I mind the story, said Finnegan. Balaam was a highbrow that knowed less than his Jackass. He took an office to curse the people. The Jackass saved them. 'Tis all in Numbers Twenty-two. Och hone! 'Tis different these times. The Jackass knew better till Balaam tamed him.

"Lave me ride ye," says Balaam, "an' I'll make ye the biggest Ass in the world."

"Great," says the Ass; "what d'ye feed?"

"Pork," says Balaam.

"Me savior," says the Ass. So Balaam mounts. But soon the Jack balks.

"Phwat is it?" says Balaam.

"Snakes," says the Ass; "Ut looks like the jawbone uv me mother."

"G'wan," says Balaam, "hittin' the Ass a clip, 'tis me furren' policy," he says.

"Phwat's ut for?" axes the Ass.

"Ut defends the nashun," says Balaam.

"How?" says the Ass.

"Faith," says Balaam, "ut takes a bigger Ass than you to know that. Lave it to Brine," says Balaam to the Ass; an' the Jack walks on meditation."

"Toe, haw," says the Ass, balkin' an' kickin'.

"What now?" says Balaam.

"Divil a Jackass ever seen the like," says the Ass. "Ut could be a frog," says he, "for ut stands up in front, an' sits down behind; an' 'tis mostly mouth," says the Ass. "Ut has white feathers," says the Jack, "wid yaller streaks, that changes," he says, "to Very Crooz Red, or Niagara Blue, an' now they're Carryall Yaller again," says he. "Hilvins, have I been drinkin'?" screams the Ass to Balaam.

"Salute be praised," says Balaam.

"Me Watchful Waitin' can still change its mind," he says. "G'wan, where glory waits," he says. "G'wan, in the service uv Mankind," says Balaam to the Ass, touchin' him up. An' the Ass shuffles ahead, wavin' his ears in admiration.

"Hee-haw! Hee-haw!" says the Jack, rearin' up wid his eyes bulgin'.

"Phwat's grippin' ye now?" says Balaam, lumpsunt like.

"I donno," says the Ass. "Ut looks like the Flyin' Dutchman wid a Socialist Crew," he says.

"Tis me Ship Hill," says Balaam.

"Side step to the right," he says; "side step to the left," says he, welthin' him.

"Back up," says Balaam, near wrenchin' off the Jack's jaw. "Now forward for the Merchant Marine an' fifty million pork," says Balaam wid a shower uv blows; an' the Ass goes on threble."

"Wah-beel Wah-beel Wah-beel" says the Jack, shyn' so he near threw his rider.

"I'll learn ye to shy at me Naval Bill," says Balaam, lar-rupin' the baste so he cud scarce stand.

"Ye can't pass ut widout wearin' Republican clothes," says the Jack in a coarse whisper.

"Ye Ass," says Balaam. "Don't ye know that any cloes is better nor nakedness? G'wan," says Balaam, in tones uv thunder. So the poor baste totes on, limp'n' wid pain.

I've not time to tell ye all the adventures they had, but they kep' on over rough roads, now an' then crossin' a ditch on a wain term plank, which made even Balaam unasy. Every time the Jack klicked, he got short rattous an' a wallop. So when the journey was near over, the poor baste was all in, and far too proud to fight. Any Jack-Ass can be that when he's klicked.

Wan stormy night, the Jack blooms into a harmony like a Dimyent Tariff. He's played on a gaspino wid the feet.

"At this ye now?" calls Balaam, cluckin' him wid both hands.

"Niver did I pass the like," yells the Ass, sweatin' and threbleth."

"Ut says ut's an eight hour law. Oh, phwat is ut?" screams the Ass to Balaam, feebly wagglin' his ears.

"I dinno phwat ut is meself," says Balaam, "but I know phwat ut's got," Balaam says.

"Phwat?" axes the poor Ass.

"Fivo hundred thousand votes," says Balaam, wid a pious air. "G'wan, ye big Ass, an' don't ye argue wid an' laylist," says Balaam to the Ass.

"We can't pass ut in the dark," pleads the Ass. "Lave us wait for light," moans the Ass, weepin'.

"Nix," says Balaam, "There's a hot time comin' an' the votes'll spile. Do ye thirst for sixteen more years in the wilderness? Giddip!" says he, "purgin' ye'r heart," says Balaam, "iv ivry thought that's selfish," says Balaam, "or personal," chants Balaam to the poor Ass klickin' the Jack's shins wid a couplin' pin.

By this time, the Ass was so wore out wid his arduous labors, that he knew no more than Balaam himself. So, wid one despairin' cry, he dropped his ears, as to an' his master stumbled forward into the dark.

SOCIAL ITEMS

Bridge Party

The first meeting of the Bridge Club this season met at the home of Miss Catherine Victory Tuesday afternoon at her home on East Main.

After several games the bridge prize was won by Miss Lucy Fawcett and the guest prize by Miss Margaret Ross. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Brent Hart, of Diweon, served a delightful salad course. Those present were: Misses Lurline Coil, Frances Elgin, Lucile Whittinghill, Amelia Coil, Mayme Wooten, Laura Isabel Liffon, Louise McPherson, Nan Kirkwood, Mary and Margaret Ross, Lucy Fawcett and Mrs. Robert Schlottman.

After the social a business meeting was called and new rules voted upon. Two new members were taken into the club, Mrs. Montgomery Holeman and Mrs. Sterling Lanier, of Nortonville. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Robert Schlottman.

October Bargain Club

An opportunity is presented our readers this month to secure The Evansville Courier daily for one year and The Bee semi weekly one year at the bargain rate of $3.50. The regular price for both papers is $5.00.

It is expected that hundreds of people will take advantage of this chance to get their favorite city daily and home semi-weekly at a moderate price. If your subscription does not expire at the end of the year, your time will be extended one year. This low rate is made however only in the month of October.

DO OUR NERVES THINK? IS QUERY

Declares Impulses Were Nearly as Strong as Verbal Command

"Sometimes it seems to me that our nerves actually have the power of thought," said Mrs. Charles Bergle, of 319 Mulberry street, Cincinnati, recently. Mrs. Bergle had been discussing nerve "freaks" with the Tanlac Man.

"I was very nervous and especially at night, from lack of proper rest and a deranged stomach," she continued. "An almost uncontrollable impulse would come over me to get up and run to escape my nervousness. It was probably a subconscious 'freak,' but it seemed as if I could hear my nerves say, 'Run, run!' I would jump at the slightest noise. I wonder if this is not some form of thought?"

"My stomach bothered me so much that sleep was rare. There was a bloated condition all the time. I would have dizzy spells occasionally, and when I would stoop over, spots would flash before my eyes. My heart palpitated and it felt, sometimes, as if it was going to jump out of me.

"What food I could eat soured on my stomach, doing me little good.
"It seemed as if the very first dose of Tanlac helped me. I received a great deal of good from it. My stomach feels better in every way. I sleep well and my heart never suffer through the peculiar weaknesses and diseases of their delicate, feminine structure.

They have found in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the one unfailing remedy which heals feminine weaknesses at their very source. This marvelous "Prescription" restores absolute health to the internal organism; stops ulcerated conditions, gives elastic strength to the supporting ligaments, vitality to the nerve centers, and complete womanly vigor to the entire constitution.
It is the perfect fortifier and regulator at every critical period from the time when they merge into womanhood until the "change of life." It is the one medicine which makes motherhood safe and almost free from pain.

KENTUCKY TESTIMONY.

Louisville, Ky.—"I have been so well satisfied with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant bothers me any more. My nerves have quit thinking. They are fifty per cent better.

"Tanalac has done me so much good that I recommend it to many of my friends and they are all getting good results from the treatment."

Tanalac is a vegetable product designed to combat ailments of the stomach, liver, kidneys and catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes.
For nervous, run down men and women Tanlac is the ideal reconstructive tonic, appetizer, invigorant, and rebuilder of tissues.

Tanalac is composed exclusively of roots, herbs, barks and flowers, gathered from the most remote parts of the world and compounded under the personal direction of Joseph Van

There's sport smoking a pipe or rolling your own, but you know that you've got to have the right tobacco! We tell you Prince Albert will bang the doors wide open for you to come in on a good time firing up every little so often, without a regret!

You'll feel like your smoke past has been wasted and will be sorry you cannot back up for a fresh start.

You swing on this say-so like it was a tip to a thousand-dollar bill! It's worth that in happiness and contentment to you, to every man who knows what can be gotten out of a chummy jimmy pipe or a makin's cigarette with Prince Albert for "packing"!

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO.
Wintons-Salem, N. C.

This is the reverse side of the tidy red tin

THE Prince Albert tidy red tin, and in fact, every Prince Albert package, has a real message-to-you on its reverse side. You'll read—"Process Patented July 30th, 1907." That means that the United States Government has granted a patent on the process by which Prince Albert is made. And by which tongue bite and throat parch are cut out! Everywhere tobacco is sold you'll find Prince Albert awaiting you in toppy red bags, 50c; tidy red tins, 10c; handsome pound and half-pound tin humdreds and in that clever crystal-glass humidor, with sponge-moistener top, that keeps the tobacco in such fine condition—always!

Does yours bring joy to the breakfast table?

North—East—South—West—women are solving the coffee problem.

Armies have solved it. "An army travels on its stomach" and of the army breakfast, ask any soldier what he would miss most.

Famous restaurants have solved it. They know that without the right coffee they would have failed.

One of the greatest American judges has said that unhappiness in the home commences with the first cup of poor coffee.

There is a coffee which brings a million men to breakfast "in a hurry"—a coffee that makes all these men eager to get to the breakfast table, slow to leave it.

Your grocer has this coffee—Arbuckles'. Today you can introduce its rich, full flavor in your home. Serve Arbuckles' for a week and notice how much more his breakfast means to him. Bring joy to your breakfast table.

Today there are whole towns where Arbuckles' is practically the only coffee used. In one State, alone, in a year, four pounds of Arbuckles' Coffee was used for every man, woman and child in the State—four times as many pounds of coffee as the population of the State!
